The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Contract for purchase means a contract entered into between a pawnbroker and a customer pursuant to which money is advanced to the customer by the pawnbroker on the delivery of tangible personal property by the customer to the pawnbroker on the condition that the customer, for a fixed price and within a fixed period of time, not to exceed 90 days, has the option to cancel the contract and recover from the pawnbroker the tangible personal property.

Fixed price means the amount agreed upon to cancel a contract for purchase during the option period. The fixed price shall not exceed one-fifth of the original purchase price for each month, plus the original purchase price.

Fixed time means that period of time, not to exceed 90 days, as set forth in a contract for purchase, within which the customer may exercise an option to cancel the contract for purchase.

LeadsOnline is an online system, available free of charge to pawnbrokers, used to track and record information regarding contracts for purchase, pledges and purchase transactions for subscribing law enforcement agencies.

Local law enforcement agency means any marshal's office, police department, or sheriff's office with jurisdiction in the locality in which the customer enters into a contract for purchase or a purchase transaction.

Option means the fixed time and the fixed price agreed upon by the customer and the pawnbroker in which a contract for purchase may be but does not have to be canceled by the customer.

Pawnbroker means a person who, in the course of such person's business, is regularly engaged in the business of making contracts for purchase or is both regularly engaged in the business of making purchase transactions and regularly or occasionally makes contracts for purchase.

Pawnbroking means engaging in the business of a pawnbroker.

Purchase transaction means the purchase by a pawnbroker in the course of business of tangible personal property for resale, other than newly manufactured tangible personal property which has not previously been sold at retail, when such purchase does not constitute a contract for purchase.

Tangible personal property means all personal property other than choses in action, securities, or printed evidences of indebtedness, which property is deposited with or otherwise actually delivered into the possession of a pawnbroker in the course of business in connection with a contract for purchase or purchase transaction.

Such individual applicant having been adjudged in any civil or criminal proceeding to have engaged in business or trade practices prohibited by law, or convicted of any felony or other offense involving moral turpitude shall be considered in determining whether the individual applicant, manager, partner, director and/or holder of the applicant's stock is a person of good moral character.

- (c) The city clerk shall not deny an applicant's request for a license without notice to the applicant of the reasons for such denial, and without the applicant being given an opportunity for an appeal of the city clerk's decision, as set forth in Section 42-516(d).

(Code 1975, § 16-10; Ord. No. 2267, § 1, 7-12-93)

 - (1) Fails, at any time, to meet the qualifications required of an applicant by this division;

 - (3) Obtained the license by fraud or misrepresentation; or
 - (4) Has final conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude, including but not limited to theft, fraud, robbery, burglary, larceny, or deceit; and such conviction, as determined by the police department, would create a danger to the public health, safety, or welfare if the licensee were to continue to engage in such conduct.
- (b) If the city clerk is made aware of the grounds in subsection (a) of this section, the city clerk shall have the authority to revoke the license for the remainder of its term.
- (c) Before the hearing required by subsection (d) of this section, the city clerk may suspend a license for up to 15 days, if the clerk determines that the suspension is immediately necessary for the protection of the public health, safety, or welfare. The clerk may include in the temporary suspension reasonable orders or conditions with which the licensee shall comply to protect any work in progress and the public health, safety, or welfare. Any breach of such conditions or orders is an independent ground for revocation of the license.
- (d) Except for such emergency suspension authorized by subsection (c) of this section, no such suspension or revocation is final until the licensee has been given the opportunity for a hearing to contest the suspension or revocation. Such hearing shall be held within 20 days of a written request for the hearing filed with the city clerk's office by the licensee affected. Appeal of the denial of a request for issuance of a pawnbroker's license or renewal thereof shall be conducted according to this subsection. The hearing shall be conducted as follows:

- (3) Any hearing presented pursuant to this subsection shall be conducted in conformance with standards of procedural due process applicable to administrative hearings, including the right to present testimony and to confront witnesses.
- (4) The hearing officer shall apply the standard for review whether the city, through the order of revocation, suspension, or denial, abused its discretion, acted arbitrarily or acted in excess of its authority under this division. Additionally, the licensee or applicant shall have the burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence why the revocation, suspension, or denial of the license or renewal thereof was improper under this standard. It shall also be the burden of the licensee to establish mitigation in contesting any order of revocation or suspension.
- (5) The hearing officer shall conduct the hearing within 20 days of the filing of the request for hearing and shall enter written finding of fact and conclusions of law, which shall be mailed to the licensee or applicant at the address shown on the license application. The hearing officer's decision shall be effective within three days of the date of the written finding required by this subsection.
- (e) If, after a hearing, the suspension or revocation is upheld, the city clerk may include reasonable orders or conditions with which the person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall comply to protect any work in progress and the public health, safety, and welfare.
- (f) No person whose license is revoked under this section may receive a refund of any part of the license fee paid for the license.
- (g) No person who has had a license suspended or revoked under this section is entitled to obtain the license or any similar license under this division during the period of suspension or revocation, either in the person's own name or as a principal in another business that applies for a license.
